

Nomination for the Hamar Midgely Award
Brad Morris – North Queensland Flyfishers Club

01.08.2025

The North Queensland Flyfishers Club is proud to nominate Brad Morris for the prestigious Hamar Midgely Award, in recognition of his outstanding contribution to our club and the sport of fly fishing.

Brad is a passionate and generous fly fisherman whose efforts have had a lasting impact on our members and the broader fly-fishing community. His contributions include:

1. Expertise and Accessibility
Brad is a champion fly fisherman who leads guided trips to remote locations. His down-to-earth approach makes fly fishing more accessible, especially to newcomers. By sharing his knowledge freely, he helps others learn and enjoy the sport without intimidation.
2. Support for Tournament Preparation
Brad plays a key role in preparing club members for tournaments. His calm, practical teaching style has helped many anglers build confidence and improve their skills.
3. Club Support and Sponsorship
Beyond his leadership, Brad has actively secured sponsorship and equipment donations for the club—strengthening our resources and profile.
4. Mentorship and Leading by Example
Brad is generous with his time, mentoring new members and modelling respectful behaviour and good judgment on the water. He helps foster a welcoming and supportive club environment.
5. Encouraging Participation
Brad inspires others through both his actions and explanations, encouraging members to get involved and deepen their passion for fly fishing.
6. Community Outreach and Inclusivity
Brad champions club trips and new fishing opportunities, always promoting inclusivity and diversity. His efforts have helped grow and unify our club.

Brad's leadership, generosity, and dedication make him an outstanding candidate for the Hamar Midgely Award. His influence is felt across all levels of our club and has helped shape a stronger, more connected fly-fishing community in North Queensland.

We wholeheartedly endorse Brad Morris for this honour.

Sincerely,

Kim Macpherson

President NQFF